

Readers of The Proceedings of the Commissioners may be wondering where the April 25 report is to be found. There is no report. Commissioner James Krotz who submits the Proceeding was on the injured/disabled list that day having just had his gallbladder removed. Krotz reports that recovery is going well, and he expects to attend and report on the Proceedings of the next Commissioners meeting scheduled for Tuesday, May 9.