

Proceedings of the Commissioners

The Sheridan County Board of Commissioners (BOC) met in regular session on Tuesday, September 12, 2023, at the County Courthouse. Notice of the meeting was published on the county website sheridancounty.ne.gov. The meeting was open to the public and a ZOOM connection was made available. Present were Chairman Bruce Messersmith, Commissioners Dan Kling and James Krotz, County Clerk Sindy Coburn, Treasurer Renee Thies, Clerk of the District Court Carol Stouffer, and Road Superintendent Richard Cross.

Road Superintendent Cross reported that crews are finishing up several summer projects and that work on the E-911 sign replacement project is ramping up again.

Building Superintendent Jeff Davis reported that the courthouse gutter lining work is complete, the stack liner for the courthouse boiler has been installed and the tuckpointing should be completed by the end of this week.

Sheriff Jeff Brewer and Secretary Carol Tiensvold reported that two new patrol units, ordered two years ago, have arrived in Rapid City. The Ram 4x4 crew-cab pickups cost $41,480 each. The purchase is being funded, in part, by the City of Rushville with whom the County has a law enforcement contract.

Chad Thies and Nicole Turner of ZELLE Human Resources joined the meeting via ZOOM to provide an update on their efforts to recruit candidates for the position of County Road Superintendent.

The next regular meeting of the BOE and BOC will be Tuesday, September 19.

The minutes of this and all meetings of the Board of Commissioners will be available to the public at the office of the Sheridan County Clerk and are also available online at sheridancounty.ne.gov. All meetings of the Board of Commissioners are held in compliance with Nebraska Open Meetings Act and the public is always welcome. Submitted by James Krotz.
