

COMMISSIONERS MINUTES

SEPTEMBER 13, 2022

The Sheridan County Commissioners met in regular session and by Zoom (ID# 93997918251 Passcode 625274) at 9 A.M. All members present.

Messersmith stated that the meeting would be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Nebraska Open Meeting Act. This meeting was posted on the official County website and published in the Sheridan County Journal Star on September 7, 2022.

Krotz made a motion to accept the agenda. Kling seconded the motion. With a roll call vote all voted aye. Messersmith made a motion to approve the minutes of 8-23-22. Krotz seconded the motion. With a roll call vote all voted aye.

The board audited and approved claims.

Road Superintendent Richard Cross visited with the board about the harvest traffic beginning to take a toll on the county roads.

David Russell and Staci Meeks, representing the County Agriculture Society, visited with the board about the change to a PRCA rodeo at the County Fair and asked about the possibility of increased funding. The allocation of $67,000 has already been approved for the 2022-2023 budget year. The board encouraged them to come to a meeting with the request in early April or May for consideration of an increase for next year.

Jenny Nixon, Unit Leader of the County Extension Service, met with the board to discuss the use of the Extension Sinking Fund for the purchase of audio-visual equipment along with some furniture for their conference room. The board reviewed the Resolution (1999-10) that set up the Sinking Fund and it did not designate what it was to be used for, therefor the board agreed that this would be an appropriate use.

Marie Nelson, Extension 4-H Assistant gave the board an update on the recent activities.

The board will reschedule the building inspection and the jail inspection for another time, due to court running longer than usual.

Adjourn: 12:50 P.M.

Bruce Messersmith, Chairman

Attest:  Sindy L. Coburn, Co Clerk
