Road Superintendent Richard Cross informed the board that his department is installing video cameras in 22 motor- graders and trucks at the cost of $449 per camera.

The board discussed the advertising to hire a successor for the Road Superintendent. Applications will be open immediately.

Ryan Poots of Eagle View presented his company's proposal for the continued use of ariel photo data by the County Assessor. Eagle View has been providing pictometry service to Sheridan County for six years. Assessor Skinner presented a cost/benefit analysis showing the comparison in doing an in person Ag Review and doing an Ag Review using pictometry. The analysis showed a significant savings using the pictometry. Poots will send an official contract for the board to review on July 11.

Building & Grounds Superintendent Jeff Davis reported that the work on tuck-pointing the courthouse will begin July 6 or 7. Davis also reported that he has ordered glass for the Assessor's Office.

Bruce Salisbury and Trisha Loosvelt of the Sheridan County Tourism Board met to request the use of the Annex conference room for Tourism Board meetings. They also asked about purchasing the laptop that has currently been used by the GIVE office. They informed the board that the Tourism Board is planning to make Bev Wellnitz the Tourism Director and plan to use the monies that were given to the GIVE program to fund it.

The board approved the request for use of the Annex conference room and gave Bruce Salisbury a key to the main door of the Annex. The board will consider their request to purchase the laptop but took no action at this time.
